THE WESTERN OUTLAWS.

There are no reputable form sheets outside Ingleside's for DAILY RACING FORM to publish this morning and the telegraphic difficulties are too great to get correct returns in chart form from San Francisco. It embraces 297 horses, most of which have seen their best racing days and seventy-five jockeys of no account class. Here is the horse list th date, alphabetically arranged:

DEATH OF PATRON.

LEXINGTON, Ky., Apr. 7.—The sire of the Milbrook Farm Patron, by Falsetto—Patrimony, a half brother to Keenan and Lisomony, died yesterday of lockjaw. The horse ran a nail in his foot a few days ago and the slight wound caused his death. There was no more promising young sire in Kentucky than the young horse for which Louis Stuart once refused $30,000. As a 2-year-old he won the Cateret and as a 3-year-old the Brooklyn Derby and Belmont Stakes. Patron served a choice band of mares last and this season and his yearlings are a uniform lot of great quality in conformation and action.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Vincitor will not come East for either the Brooklyn or Suburban Handicaps. He has gone to the San Jose, California, farm for a rest.

Out of a failure to agree on an early cessation of racing at San Francisco comes the announcement that the sport will go on until June 15.

The historic harness racing course at Hartford, Conn., Charter Oak Park, was sold to a real estate dealer Saturday for $19,000. The plant cost $160,000.

Sure enough, old Terra Cotta, a noble race horse in his day, and whose early children indicate quality, is to succeed Buchanan as the sire of the Scoggan farm.

GOOD RACING AT INGLESIDE,

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., April 7.—Though the Ingleside going was muddy the racing was good and three favorites out of six scored. The 3-year-old handicap was scratched away. As a starter, Torpedo nipped the much used Howard S. on the post. Collins suffered the same fate through Schnitz's closing rush. Sam Hildreth's brother to Rico, named after the famous detective, William Pinkerton, won his race all the way. Service and Adolph Spreckels had a sharp fight and at the end the 3-year-old retired in favor of Figaro. Sallie Cliequot, at odds of 1 to 6 and worse, had a tough time of it, but just did win the last race on the post by the scantest of heads from Paros. The summary:
